THE
1979 LIBERATOR

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN
Forty-four years of service to the Lincoln District certainly should qualify as some kind of dedication. Since 1935, after his graduation from this school, Woody Jones has served it in one capacity or another. Beginning as a novice bus driver (he had one lesson) and ending as a custodian, Woody has worked and lived in this district all that time and has seen it grow from a truly rural consolidated to a semi-urban school. Enjoy your retirement, Woody!

In 1961, when Lincoln High School was the "new" High School, Mae Makarewich came here from a position in the Elementary Cafeteria to serve as our Laundress. She has ruled over that realm since that time as undisputed ruler, watching many changes of students and faculty from her vantage point near the kitchen. Except for a few days of ice-enforced vacation last winter, she has been most faithful in her attendance. We hope she enjoys Florida.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Shown at left gathered around Yearbook Advisor Fred Libbey, are the people chiefly responsible for making this year's publication possible. They are Kathy Gagnon, Tammy Sweet, Sue Smith, Tammy Robertson, and Lorna Selter. It is, indeed, a thankless task to attempt to get other people to meet deadlines, to turn in appropriate materials and to do all those things which liberate The Liberator for its printed existence as a record of the events of this year, and of the people who participated in them. Many thanks go to those who were dedicated enough to see that this 1979 Liberator came to be.
Administration

FORENSICS

THESPIANS

Chosen for this year's play production was the play "Inherit the Wind". Directed by Jackie Guernsey and starring Ralph Day as Henry Drummond, and Jim Burrell as Matthew Brady, it details the epic struggle during the Scopes trial to determine whether or not evolution might be taught in the classroom.

Ralph and Jim excerpted a portion of the play for forensics and went to state level competition before they were eliminated.

Ralph Day as Colonel Henry Drummond and Jim Burrell as Colonel Matthew Brady.
With 7th grader Rick Sanderson as Oliver, direction by Jackie Guernsey, Ken Bowman, and Don Harrell, the high School Drama and Music department staged a very successful two weekends' run of OLIVER! in May.

Activities
All the floats this year were based on Disney themes and while the Class of 1980 did not succeed in achieving its aim of "hooking" the Wildcats they did hook the 1st place trophy and shed no crocodile or other tears about it.

The Class of 1981 urged the team to defeat Nove for "Pete's" sake but it was not to be and they had to settle for second place in the float competition while indicating they would be fierce competition in the next set-to.

The Class of 1979 was wholly unable to take the cake but were able to capture third place.

The Class of 1982 unfortunately had an encounter of the worst kind on the road to the football field and were happy to settle for survival which in this case is fourth place.
In the picture left we see 1977 Homecoming Queen Shirley Schimmel crowning 1978 Homecoming Queen Nancy Henderson. On the right we see Queen Nancy with her father Roland Henderson.

QUEEN’S COURT

HOMECOMING DANCE
Held at McKenny Hall on the 1st of June, the Junior-Senior Prom proved to be a marvelous social occasion. The theme was "The Way We Were" and it should prove to be worth looking back upon the way we were.
