

WHEN A CRISIS HAPPENS

The Lincoln District Crisis team meets monthly throughout the school year with the main purpose of supporting student safety. The team works hard to make sure we're prepared in case of a crisis. While we are not in the midst of a crisis, we wanted to remind our community of the steps involved when a crisis occurs.

First and foremost is ensuring the safety of students and staff. You entrust your child to us, and we take this responsibility seriously. In the age of cell phones and social media, we will never be able to beat the messages you receive from your student. Our staff needs to focus on the situation, and we need you to trust that when the crisis is over, we will communicate what we can to our community.

While every situation is different, generally the following will occur. Some steps occur quickly, others can take longer to resolve, and some may even happen at the same time. Just know that we are working quickly and will communicate as we can, either during or after the process. Thank you for your continued support of our great schools!
