

Student Network/Internet/Email User Agreement

Acceptable uses of technology are devoted to activities which support teaching and learning. Listed below is our agreement with students in grades 9-12 concerning the use of technology in the school setting:

As a student I agree:

- To use the hardware, software, and social media (Edmoto, Moodle, Google Docs, Facebook, etc.) provided by Lincoln Consolidated Schools solely for educational purposes.
- To protect the privacy of my username and password from others.
- To follow the rules of copyright law and guidelines as well as trademark laws and licensing agreements in the copying of text, images, or other files from the Internet or other resources.
- To immediately notify the supervising teacher if I access something questionable.
- Not to copy or modify files, data, or passwords belonging to other users and/or not to use their usernames and passwords.
- Not to reveal personal information or images online without written permission from my parent or guardian.
- Not to reveal personal information or images of any other individual online such as the name, email address, house address or telephone numbers.
- Not to illegally install licenses or copyrighted software.
- Not to vandalize any hardware, software or data including hacking into the school network and/or creating and transmitting computer viruses.
- Not to change any computer setting without permission from the supervising teacher.
- Not to participate in any actions which may be considered obscene, profane, pornographic, discriminatory, defamatory, harassing, malicious, or dangerous (cyberbullying) to the integrity of technology/ information resources of the District.

Web Publishing

Student work may be considered for publication on the web, i.e., teacher or school website, District website, blog, wiki, iTunesU, etc. Such publishing requires parent/guardian permission.

Additionally, unidentified photos or videos of students may be published on school websites or blogs, illustrating student projects and achievements. If you do not want your child's photo to be published on any web location, you can submit a FERPA letter to the Lincoln High School Office.
