THE 1982 LIBERATOR

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL
YPSILANTI, MICHIGAN

Accustomed as he has been, to these many years to being the big wheel (Ferris, of course) it is going to be a real comedown to be reduced to the status of a Chelsea rose raiser and antique (dealer, that is). Nonetheless, that is what Mr. Ferris, erstwhile polymath and mathematician, has chosen to do, abandoning his preeminent position as resident sage and ear. Who will there be to tell us, "God Love ya!" Blake?

Anna Wright has been a big wheel of quite another sort. She served the Lincoln district as a substitute bus driver from 1954 until 1960, when, still unimintimated by what is indeed a very challenging job, she took over full control of Bus 41 from 1960 to 1982. With Chuck retired earlier, it is going to be more and more difficult to catch the wright bus. Right?

PLAY AND MUSICAL

In this topsy-turvy world in which we live, thanks to the Drama Department, the nights of November 13th and 14th were metamorphosed into THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16TH, and Sally Henderson and Felicia Chestnut into criminal? and prosecuting attorney respectively.

And in May it was HELLO, DOLLY! thanks to that fearsome threesome (Guernsey to Bowman to Harrell) not to mention the superlative performance of Dolly (Chris Burns) and the stellar support of more people than could possibly be mentioned, all of whom had a great time proving that it is possible to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. Not once but many times, in fact, year after year.

PIT BAND

HOMECOMING 1981

Taking first place in their first effort with an inspired rendition of that well-known media event, Man Bites Dog, was the Class of 1985, otherwise known as the freshman class. Unfortunately it was the Bulldogs which bit us so the ability of the class to forecast the future is in doubt even if their skill as floatbuilders is not.

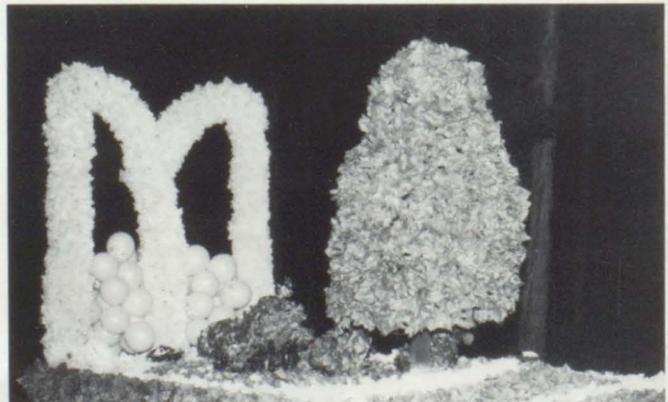

In a fast food perversion of the quick food theme, a quarter pounder attempts to make short work of what appears to be a hot dog. And were they ever! So much for the effort of the Class of 1982 to foretell the outcome of the contest.

In third place is the effort of the Class of 1984 to live up to its Orwellian name. By proposing to dunk the Bulldogs it put the fat in the fire, as the saying goes, and made it necessary to put the outcome of this game down the old memory hole. You know how it goes. Winston forgets good, like a sophomore should!

Portrayed here are the fallen golden arches of the Class of 1983. Perhaps in another year they will have found the formula for avoiding this position.
